

QUILOTOA 1 DAY

Nearby the Andean Mountains there is emerald color lagoon, located inside a volcano crater with a height of 3800m named Quilotoa. The drive passes through Zumbahua canyon and tons of indigenous towns & farmlands. We will have a visit to either Saquisilí (Thursdays), Zumbahua (Saturdays) or Pujilí (Sundays) indigenous market. Before lunch we will visit Shalala, a well known community thanks to their handicrafts. This tour includes a native Quilotoa guide.

Weather on Quilotoa is very unpredictable so we recommend being prepared with warm & waterproof clothing. Please be acclimatized around 3000m before taking this tour.

INCLUDED ON THE TOUR: Transportation from Quito to Quilotoa and way back. Bilingual Guide. Lunch

NOT INCLUDED ON THE TOUR: Entry fee Quilotoa $2. Items not mentioned on the itinerary

NECESSARY EQUIPEMENT: Warm Clothing. Sunglasses. Camera. Hiking. Shoes. Gloves. Waterproof Jacket. Extra Water. Sun Cream. Extra Energy . Drinks & Snacks. Cotton Pants. Walking Sticks (OPTIONAL) We rent.

ITINERARY:

- Pick up at 07:00 am Magic Bean (Juan Leon Mera y Mariscal Foch)
- Leave towards Saquisilí / Pujilí / Zumbahua Indian markets (it depends on the day)
- Depart to an indigenous hut followed by depart to Quilotoa Lagoon
- Arrive to Quilotoa followed by trek around the crater
- Lunch
- Arrive to Tigua community
- Return towards Quito

Price by person usd 45